We arraign the Liberal party for its reckless extravagance and for its corrupt expenditure of the city's finances. When it went into power two years ago it took into its possession over a quarter of a million dollars, and by the preceding administration, to wit, $205,000. It has since collected from the people of the city as taxes about $440,000; it has taken for licenses, special and privileged taxes and fines, about $100,000; and finally it sold the city bonds to the limit by law, and placed that sum, about $600,000, to its credit; the whole aggregating each year about $1,100,000, or for the two years, $2,200,000, and of this sum only about $130,000 now remains in the treasury. We submit to the people whether the benefits received by them are commensurate with the expenditures.—Democratic Platform.
